

You are invited to the official launch of the

eTap

the solar assisted electric vehicle charger

To be opened by

Norman Baker MP

Transport Minister

At the Centre for Engineering and Manufacturing Excellence (CEME)

in Marsh Way, Rainham, East London, RM13 8EU

refreshments from 9.00 am, opening at 9.30 until 13.00

on the 6th of July 2011

Welcome by Bill Williams (CEO CEME)

Plus a short talk from Dr Keith Bevis (CEO EValu8) on the future of electro mobility

Electric vehicles supplied by Ford will be present at the event

Please RSVP to: James Montlake: 079 084 78226, james@electricityontap.co.uk

Use the Sun Ltd, 52 Denby Grange, Church Langley, Harlow, Essex, CM17 9PZ

Underground and Bus

The closest Underground station is Dagenham Heathway (District Line, Zone 5). Bus 174 (from Harold Hill via Romford) operates every 10 minutes and terminates at CEME. The journey time from the Heathway to CEME is approximately 15 minutes.

Train

C2C trains from Fenchurch Street serve Rainham Station every 30 minutes. Taxis are available next to the station to take you on your short journey to CEME.

A13 from London

Leave the A13 at the second Dagenham East/Hornchurch exit. Turn right at the first roundabout and proceed to the second roundabout. At the second roundabout take the road marked 'Marsh Way'. CEME is the first turning on the left.

A13 from the East

Leave the A13 at the first Dagenham East/Hornchurch exit. Take the first exit marked 'Marsh Way'.

